Minidoka National Historic Site
Internship Opportunities

• Short job description for onsite interpretive work: Provides great customer service to visitors by orienting them to the site and history. Will have to pass background check to gain access to building for tours. A majority of this position is standing and on your feet. Tours are roughly about 1.5 miles of walking and will be conducted during the heat of summer and inclement weather. Skills that will be acquired through this internship is customer service, public speaking, some research, and facilitating public history programming.

• Short job description for offsite research: Work with internship coordinator at the Minidoka National Historic Site on selecting a topic or topics to research. A research paper will be drafted to contribute to scholarship on the Japanese American incarceration experience. Skills that will be acquired through this internship is research skills and writing.